PERTINENT INFORMATION
High lights of a conversation between CABANJO and FRIESEN of UPSWING which <input type="checkbox"/> overheard in offices of the SG on 18 July 1956. CABANJO mentioned he had recently talked to CARETINA who was shopping around for a job. He had approached all German agencies which might be interested in his story. CARETINA was looking for a large cash payment for his experiences, as well as a satisfactory job. CABANJO remarked that CARETINA was foolish to believe that he would ever rise to a position of responsibility in Germany. CABANJO said one of his subordinates, Heinz (lma) was still in touch with CARETINA. CABANJO said he knew CARETINA had talked to someone in the BKA, Wiesbaden and that the BKA was planning to debrief CARETINA at some length if arrangements could be made. CARETINA stressed he would not reveal anything except tidbits unless there was something in it for him. CABANJO wondered whether a large number of former Abwehr personnel had not been returned from the Soviet Union with definite intelligence assignments. He cited Fritz PAWZINGEN (1 Feb 1903) as an example of one who had been returned with a definite assignment against UPSWING. FRIESEN blurted out, "Oh, you mean just like CARETINA". The conversation ended abruptly. POB has no indication that CARETINA has an assignment for the Soviets against UPSWING. POB believes that although UPSWING would like to talk to CARETINA, they have no assignment (slot) for him and also because of an agreement with CARETINA, must allow CARETINA to talk to him first. FRIESEN has also mentioned casually that CARETINA's former secretary is now in Munich. During the course of the conversation at the SG, the following was also discussed: CABANJO stated CARETINA has received a lump sum offer if he will write a book. Offer is believed to have come from the Americans. CABANJO also said that KENT of Rote Kapelle was now working as a trustee with supervisory duties in a prison camp in the Soviet Union, presumably Vorkuta.
